

TVPX Aviation Insurance, Inc.

TVPX now offers comprehensive and flexible insurance products and services that are specifically tailored for the business aircraft market. The TVPX team includes a 39-year insurance veteran with broad experience in business aviation, having served both as an underwriting manager for major carriers and as a broker/consultant for owners and operators. TVPX has established close working relationships with most of the major carriers and can offer clients a range of insurance alternatives at competitive rates.

TVPX utilizes a thorough, yet efficient process to initially assess each client's risks, monitor their needs on an ongoing basis and propose the right insurance solutions. TVPX's approach with each of its clients includes:

- Diligent information collection regarding the use and operation of the aircraft
- Creative solutions for client specific issues and a constructive approach to working with carriers to structure coverage best suited for a client's profile
- Assessing needs to supplement aircraft hull and liability and aviation general liability with related coverages such as worker's compensation and hangar insurance
- Maintaining open lines of communication with clients throughout the relationship
- Staying apprised of the latest developments in the insurance market
- Working with the client and the carrier on claims to facilitate a positive outcome.
